INTRODUCTION

by David South.

The idea for this book first came to me when Matthew Robertson and I were preparing to take a band to the 2011 National Folk Festival in Canberra.

I had hoped to have recorded another CD to sell at the Festival. Unfortunately, time beat me and I decided to maybe put a small book of original tunes together. The initial thought was that I had a few unpublished tunes that I would like to share with the world and that it was about time I had released a follow-up to my book from 1996.

Well, the idea grew ... as they do!

Looking through some of the band arrangements of the previous ten years, I had realised that there were quite a few tunes penned by both Matthew and our good friend Duncan Smith, who plays piano with us regularly. So I asked them if they had any others that they might like to include.

Along with my own (which numbered more than I realised as well), we've managed to assemble a collection of 59 "new" tunes. "New" meaning they haven't been published before, as some date back as far as 1980. There is a mixture of rhythms, tempos and styles. Hopefully, you will find something in here that suits your style.

Most of the tunes are standalone tunes. However, some are part of a set and these sets appear at the end of the book. The stories behind each of the tunes appear below them and are written by the composer.

A special note about the layout

You will notice that I've taken the unusual step of notating both the tunes and basslines along with chord symbols. Mostly, the basslines will be playable by a double-bass, electric-bass, or the left hand of the piano, without much alteration. Occasionally, they might be a little high for a pianist's left hand, or a little low for the range of a double-bass. For whatever instrument you're playing, the general approach is – if it's too high, transpose it down an octave; if it's too low, transpose it up an octave.

The title tune to the dance devised by American devisor and dance teacher Ron Wallace. It featured on our first album "Kardinia Capers" and the dance instructions were included in the CD booklet.

Both tune and dance began life during the 23rd Royal Scottish Country Dance Society Australian Winter School in 1998 and are dedicated to Jan Clarke and Margaret Cochran. The day before the School was due to begin in Ballarat, Victoria, and accident at the Victorian gas plant caused a severe gas shortage (which lasted 12 days). Jan and Margaret, members of the Ballarat Scottish Country Dance Group, offered their electrically heated shower for the teachers and musicians use during the week of the School.

The dance is in a 40-bar sequence. To fit the tune to the dance, it should be played A-B-A-BB.

Composed for the dance "Karen & Ian's Wedding", which was included in the book "2001: A Dance Odyssey", published by the Queensland Branch of the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society. Unfortunately, the tune wasn't included with the dance in the publication.

The dance was devised by Anne & Joanne Archdeacon who are involved with the Cairns Scottish Country Dance Club and dedicated to a couple in their group who married in 1997.

The entire length of the dance is 96 bars. To fit the tune to the dance, it should be played A-A-B-B-A-A. Alternatively, the tune could be used as a two-step.

When she celebrated her 80th birthday at the start of 2011, Lis was presented with a dance that was especially devised to mark the occasion by one of her dancers Jeanne McFarlane. This is the tune that goes with the dance.

A slip jig to honour the perhaps infamous life of Scots fiddler, Neil Gow Foggo (c.1810–1870), twice transported to Tasmania (or Van Diemen's Land) and interred at Port Arthur Penal Settlement. Foggo's great uncle was Nathaniel Gow, of the famous fiddling clan, also Foggo family guardian. Details of Foggo's life and times were brought to light by my good friend, Peter MacFie, Tasmanian historian, musician and, in the 1980s, staff historian with the Port Arthur Conservation Project. The tune is recorded on the Melbourne Scottish Fiddle Club's 2009 CD "Gates Of Gold".

The title tune of our 2009 recording and dedicated to my late father James. One of his many nicknames was "The Laird". The tune was in the set for "The Laird Of Milton's Daughter". The dance class my Mum & Dad conducted was called "The Scottish Country Dance Club (Milton) Brisbane" – Milton was the suburb of Brisbane the class started in. This is where the nickname came from.

When Dad passed away, it was this club that funded the production of the CD "To The Laird". The club no longer exists, but thanks to their foresight, there is now a lasting memorial to Dad, recognising his enormous contribution to Scottish Country Dancing in this part of the world.

A waltz dedicated to Melbourne SCD teacher, dance devisor and long-time friend Frances Wallace. She was a guest teacher at my wife's dance class and I was playing for her that evening. In the preparations leading up to the night, Frances was giving me her preferences for the warm-up exercises she does and happened to mention that she wanted a waltz with the remark "oh the usual – just something waltzy-shmaltzy." The tune above is the result of that little spark of inspiration!

The first tune on this page was originally intended for the Roy Goldring dance "The Innes Dancers Reel", devised for the SCD Club of the same name in New Zealand. Unfortunately, I never sent the tune to him before he published the dance. However, the group do like the tune, so I've provided them a copy to use as a support tune to the one published with the dance. The lady who informed me that they like the tune is Helen Greenwood (who also devised the dance "Best Set In The Hall", which was published in the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society's Book 46). So when I sent Helen a copy of the first tune, I included the second tune as a thank you.
